

NEUMANN UNIVERSITY

CATHOLIC EDUCATION IN THE FRANCISCAN TRADITION

THE INSTITUTE FOR SPORT, SPIRITUALITY
AND CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT
PRESENTS

STORY, SPORT AND SPIRIT

A Conference to Explore the Theory and Practice of Storytelling in Athletics

MAY 19-21, 2010

NEUMANN UNIVERSITY, SUBURBAN PHILADELPHIA

PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

Dr. Clark Power

Professor of Liberal Studies, The University of Notre Dame

Jay Wright

Head Coach, Villanova University Men's Basketball

Fr. Jim Bacik

Professor of Humanities, University of Toledo

Adam J. Taliaferro

Founder of the Adam Taliaferro Foundation; subject of the book Miracle in the Making

Theresa Grentz

Member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame; 1992 Olympics Head Coach, Women's Basketball

Tom Brennan

Retired ESPN Analyst; Former Coach of the University of Vermont

Sherry Retif

Head Coach, Germantown Academy Girls' Basketball

Dr. Ed Peck

Executive Director, Ignatian Colleagues Program, John Carroll University

Ronan Tynan

Paralympic world record-holding athlete; Former member of the Irish Tenors; Motivational speaker

NEUMANN UNIVERSITY · ONE NEUMANN DRIVE · ASTON, PENNSYLVANIA · 19014

The Institute for Sport, Spirituality and Character Development at Neumann University is dedicated to a vision of sport as an academic enterprise which promotes athletics' inescapable spiritual and ethical dimensions. Through research and practice, the Institute offers opportunities for reflection and dialogue on the power of good inherent in sport. For more information, please contact ISSCD@neumann.edu or 484.840.4707.